CHINESE RIOT ON A PLANTATION .- At Ookala Plantation n the District of Hilo, on Friday the 26th ult., a gang of Chinese employed in the field cutting cane suddenly made an attack on the overseer with cane knives and hatchets. The lower story is occupied by Mr. Clark in his business, and is provided with two large plate glass windows. Mr. James Gilroy, for a number of years a merchant in China, in the course of his testimony made the following statement: " In the seaport towns of China gambling shops are as numerous as drinking places here. It is a common custom for coolies of the most degraded and vicious class to enter one of these shops and stake their services for a number of years against a certain sum of money which they play against the game. If they lose, and they generally do, they are imprisoned and bought from the owner of the shop by agents of companies here or in Peru or Cubs, and when a sufficient number are coralled they are bound by a cast-iron contract and ship-ped to their destination to work out their indebtedness. These are facts, gentlemen, which the testimony of many foreign merchants in China can substantiate."

At the same place the record for the past four months reads as follows: It will be observed that the fall of rain varies much in amount in localities comparatively near to each other, caused, without doubt, by the direction given to currents of air by the formation of the mountains. But this neighborhood has been unusually favored in the matter of rains during the past year. The steamer City of Tokio was to be met outside the heads by a fleet of steamers and yachts and escorted into port, while salutes will be fired from all the forts. From the San Francisco Merchant, Sept, 12. The Commercial Correspondent of the "Hawaiian Gazette."

The editor of the Hawaiian Gazette is probably aware that there is a little knot of jobbers (three in this city who are the avowed enemies of the Islands friends, the refiners, and also the opponents of the treaty and the slanderers of its operations. One or two discontented newspaper men have lent their aid to bring Island sugars, the Island trade and the treaty into disrepute with the American people as a means of retailation for fancied slights or for refusal to submit to blackmail. One of these newspaper men controls the Grocer of this city, and in his columns he loses no opportunity of disparaging the treaty. The other, from circumstances beyond his control, is compelied to work more secretly in this city, but is not less industrious, and if we mistake not he is the Commercial Correspondent of the Hawaiian Gazette. To the fight going on between the Island sugars and the importations from New York, the Hawaiian Kingdom is a party. Its interests are inseparably bound up with those which the Merchant advocates. The utter unscrupulousness of the other side may be estimated from the persual of our article concerning the Call's bogus news. No Hawaiian paper can afford to allow its enemies to use its columns to publish matter that the proprietors of trade journals here forbid appearing in their own, because they are untrue and unjust. If they are untrue they are slanders upon those who are giving life to the treaty, if they are unjust they are unjust to Island interests. The very article of which we complain could not have been inserted by its writer in the Ean Francisco journal which his name is connected with, except at the risk of the loss of his position. For the future it would be prudent to edit that correspondent's letters, or better still, drop them in the waste basket. The Merchant's fight is the Islands fight and the Grocer's fight is for Hawemeyer and New York sugar importers and has only been silenced in this city in the most important journal he has access to, by spiting his gun. He has two channels
